Dear Alpha Kappa Muans,

I would like to welcome all of you back to the beginning of a new academic year. Whatever this term looks like for you (online, face-to-face, hybrid, etc.), I look forward to supporting your efforts.

Just as we pivoted in the spring to successfully hold our first virtual national convention, I am confident that we will make whatever adjustments are needed to ensure our beloved organization holds true to its foundational purpose: “to promote high scholarship; to encourage sincere and zealous endeavor in all fields of knowledge and service; to cultivate a high order of personal living; and to develop an appreciation for scholarship and scholarly endeavor in others.”

With the above in mind, I anticipate an increase in inductions, reactivations, and installations, along with greater collaboration at the regional level to better facilitate collegiality between chapters. In short, this is going to be a banner year, as we continue to realize our 66th national convention theme: “Mask Up: Leadership, Scholarship, and Service in a Pandemic.”

Continue to be safe and resourceful, not only for yourselves but also for our beloved families, friends, institutions, and Alpha Kappa Mu. Let’s go!!

Sincerely,

Veronica A. Yon
