Dear Alpha Kappa Muans,

Excitement is in the air as our academic year has gotten off to a great start!

Thanks to the efforts of the Alpha Iota Chapter at Albany State University, details for our national convention have already been distributed to advisors and will be shared on other platforms soon. Themed “Navigating the Pandemic: Recovering, Refocusing, Redefining –A Strategy” and scheduled for March 29-31, 2023, the 67th National Convention promises to be an event you cannot afford to miss.

Our Chapter Showcases will highlight AKMu-sponsored activities on various campuses, the Essay Contest will feature research from student-scholars, the Loder-Riley Cultural Event will comprise a tour of the Albany Civil Rights Museum, and our Awards Ceremony will include the announcement of the 2023 Gore-Crawford Scholarship recipients along with winners of our inaugural Brown-Morris Scholarship for Graduate Students. Oh, but there will be so much more! You just need to be there!

In addition, we have already held our Fall Meeting, during which advisors shared their induction plans for the year and received tips from veteran advisors and regional directors to assist them in fulfilling their duties. At that meeting, we also rallied around a member who shared a health challenge, and it became more evident to all that Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society is indeed a family. We are a community of scholars who are building lifelong relationships to support one another in times of need. We are there for one another; therefore, if you are not plugged in, I encourage you to do so this year.

Undergraduates, graduates, alums, honorees, and retirees alike, it’s time to renew your membership, interest, and involvement in Alpha Kappa Mu. Commitment pays dividends in more ways than you can imagine. Take that first step. Believe me, you won’t regret it.

Sincerely,

Veronica A. Yon
